NSSR's Arts and Commerce College Parli-V
Online webinar on Entrepreneur Development
Organized by Dept. of Commerce

Online Webinar Organized on The Entrepreneur Development Cell of the College organized a Webinar on "Entrepreneurship during and after Covid" on 27th July 2021. A total of 102 participants consisting of, 25 faculty members and the rest were students from colleges. The Key note speaker was Dr. Sandip Gaikwad, Associate Professor Dept. of Commerce Muktanand college Gangapur dist. Aurangabad. Chair Person of Principal Dr. L.B. Ghumre was Presented Dr.Gaikwad said Hub, who discussed about the qualities every entrepreneur should possess in the present situation. insights and the action required in business and the role of entrepreneur in this enduring pandemic situation. The webinar ended with a fun contest for the students which really attracted them. Overall, it was an enriching and informative webinar. The program had two distinguished speakers who shared their knowledge and experience about entrepreneurship and was carried out in three sessions. The program witnessed an active participation of students from all the departments of the college. Entrepreneurship is the dynamic process of developing something new with value by devoting the required time and effort, taking up financial risks and relishing the monetary rewards\ associated with it. This product may or may not be new, but the entrepreneur has infused its value. He has done it by using the skills and resources effectively and efficiently. An entrepreneur is a person who is responsible for an entrepreneurship venture. Even though it is widely believed that entrepreneurs are born with the necessary skills; however, it is not entirely true, anyone can learn how to become one by undergoing an entrepreneurship development process. Vote of Thanks for the program was proposed by Dr. S.S. Awasthi faculty member, ED Cell. Students have given a feedback that the program has been of a great help in creating awareness in the field of entrepreneurship
