

-DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARY-

Introduction:-

Navgan Shikshan Sanstha Rajuri's had set up this college to spread education in the region of Parli Vajjnath.

It provides the opportunity for the rural boys & girls to get higher education. After 25 years of progress, our college has created a new dimension in the education field.

This college was started in September 1993 under the dynamic leadership and guidance of Late Sow. KesharKaku Kshirsagar (Founder of Navgan Shikshan Sanstha). With the help and assistance from the people of Parli-Vajjnath, our college now become one of the leading institution.

Library also started functioning in 1993. We provide the educational reading material to the economically & socially backward student's right from the beginning of the college & library.

Throughout the Academic Year we give two text books & one extra demanded book at a time to the students. We also provide books through Book-Bank Scheme to the SC/ST category students of weaker section & needy students are benefited by providing them text books. Efforts are made by the governing committee & Principal for the development of library.

Now, the library is having 18034 books in Senior & Junior College. 22 numbers of periodicals & journals are available today. Library has separate reading room for students. Internet facility is also available for teachers & students. We are providing QR Code Scanner for Library Visit Purpose for students and teaching staff.

The library always intended to inculcate the reading habit among the students & people, ex students & Research fellows of the area. The library staff is always keen to provide books demanded by the reader.
