Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct "Anti-Hate Signature Campaign" on Campus

Respected Sir,

Name of the Institution: Navgan Mahavidyalay, Parli Vaijnath.

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to request permission to conduct an "Anti-Hate Signature Campaign" on your esteemed educational campus as part of our "Embracing Diversity - Celebrating Unity" campaign. (6th to 15th August 2024)

The objective of this campaign is to promote communal harmony, co-existence, and unity among youths. We aim to create a platform where individuals can pledge their support against hate and discrimination, fostering a culture of inclusivity and respect.

The campaign involves setting up a stall with a sign board and posters where students and faculty can sign and show their commitment to standing against hate and promoting unity. This initiative will abide by the values of your institution, promoting a safe and welcoming environment for all. We believe that this campaign will have a positive impact on your students and contribute to creating a harmonious and inclusive environment.

We would like to request permission to conduct this campaign on [14 August]. We assure you that the event will be peaceful, respectful, and will not disrupt the regular functioning of the campus. We would be grateful if you could consider our request and grant us the necessary permission.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Local President

Girls Islamic Organisation, Parli unit, Maharashtra South Zone.
