Event Report

Organized by: - Internal Complaint Committee

Name of the Program:- Guest Lecture

Subject: - Role of Education in Gender Equality

Total Participant: - 42

Name of Guest: - Adv. Poonam Dattatray Palode

A guest lecture on the topic "Role of Education in Gender Equality" was successfully conducted on 22/01/2026 at Navgan Arts and Commerce college, Parali. The programme was organized by Internal Complaint Committee with the objective of creating awareness about the importance of education in promoting gender equality in society.

Principal Prof. Abasaheb Hange was the President of this guest lecture. The guest speaker, Adv. Poonam Dattatray Palode, Member of Female Advocate Group Parali Division Court, was warmly welcomed by the organizers. The lecture began with an introductory address highlighting the relevance of gender equality in the present social and educational context.

During the lecture, the speaker emphasized that education is a powerful tool for achieving gender equality. She/he explained how education helps in breaking gender stereotypes, empowering women, and ensuring equal opportunities for all genders. The speaker also discussed issues such as gender bias, unequal access to education, and the role of teachers and institutions in promoting inclusive and gender-sensitive education.

Real-life examples and current statistics were shared to help students understand how education can transform mindsets and contribute to social change. The importance of girls' education, legal rights, and equal participation of women in social, economic, and political fields was also highlighted.

The session was interactive, and students actively participated by asking questions and sharing their views. The lecture helped students gain a deeper understanding of gender equality and their role in promoting it through education.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by [name], expressing gratitude to the guest speaker, organizers, and participants. The guest lecture was informative, inspiring, and successful in sensitizing students about the role of education in achieving gender equality.
